RefWorks Webinars--May 2013--UPDATE

We are pleased to announce the RefWorks Webinar schedule for May 2013. (NOTE: All webinars below will be on, RefWorks 2.0. The exceptions are RefWorks Administration which currently remains on the classic interface.)

1) RefWorks Administration Functions (75 minutes)
2) How to teach RefWorks Basics
3) Beyond Direct Export: Five Other Ways to Import Information to RefWorks (30 minutes)
4) Using RefWorks to Quickly Import Citations and Write a Paper (30 minutes)
5) Gather and Organize your Research Sources in RefWorks—Part 1 (30 minutes)
6) Gather and Organize your Research Sources in RefWorks—Part 2 (30 minutes)
7) The new Write-N-Cite (45 minutes)
8) The new Write-N-Cite for the Mac (45 Minutes)

Please feel free to share the links below with your users or simply direct them to the RefWorks-COS Training Webinars website (http://www.refworks-cos.com/training/) to view a list of RefWorks Live and Recorded Webinar programs. Registration is limited and enrollment is required. We also maintain an RSS feed to our webinars on this web page.

Additionally, you may go directly to the following Live and Recorded Webinar Program Pages to enroll or view webinars in the following languages:

1) RefWorks in English (https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?p=3&l=m)
2) RefWorks auf Deutsch (https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?p=7&l=m)

Webinars in English by North America-based trainers:

RefWorks Administration

Topics covered during this 75-minute webinar include: viewing account usage; deleting account and resetting passwords; customizing your RefWorks subscription; setting up and managing the attachments feature and RefShare; adding site-wide output Styles and Z39.50 Sites; creating a custom List of import filters; and modifying the user type, focus area and new account email. This session is only for librarians and other professionals who administer RefWorks.

Thursday, May 2, 2013

2:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
11:00 am Pacific Daylight Time (San Francisco, GMT-07:00)

https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?l=a&d=711315378

Thursday, May 16, 2013

11:00 am Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
4:00 pm GMT Summer Time (London, GMT+01:00)

https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?l=a&d=711278759

How to teach RefWorks Basics

While the ideal way to teach users the basic features of RefWorks is to conduct a 30—45 minute training session, we realize that you may have only a few minutes to demonstrate the power of RefWorks. During this approximately 30-minute session, you'll rapidly learn: how to create an account; direct export citations from two databases; create a folder; create a bibliography from a list of citations; and create a bibliography using Write N' Cite. This session is primarily designed for those who will train on RefWorks and to learn how to do so quickly; however, those who are new to RefWorks can learn the basics here too.
Beyond Direct Export: Five Other Ways to Import Information to RefWorks (40 minutes)

Direct export is but one method for adding references; in this webinar we will review these other methods, which are: Importing from a text file; searching online catalogs or databases from within RefWorks; using a web browser tool called RefGrab-It to capture references from a web page; importing records from RSS feeds; entering references manually.

Using RefWorks to Quickly Import Citations and Write a Paper (30 minutes)

In this session, you’ll learn how to directly import citations from two online databases. Then you’ll see how to quickly create a bibliography for a paper two ways: 1) from a list or folder of citations in your RW account and 2) with in-text citations via the one line/cite view method. This session is primarily for undergraduates or beginning RefWorks users.

Gather and Organize your Research Sources in RefWorks—Part 1

After you’ve mastered the fundamentals of RefWorks, you’ll want to learn other features and functions. This 30-minute session will teach you how to use the following tools:

1. Direct Export from database
2. OpenURL
3. Attachments
4. Last Imported folder; Create and add a citation to folder
5. Export from library catalog or Summon Discovery Service
6. RefGrab-It
7. Quick Search

Attendees should first attend one of the following webinars first (or have a basic understanding of RefWorks)

1) RefWorks in 15 Minutes
2) RefWorks Fundamentals
3) Using RefWorks to Quickly Import Citations and Write a Paper

Thursday, May 9, 2013

10:00 am Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
3:00 pm GMT Summer Time (London, GMT+01:00)

https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?t=a&d=716988481

Gather and Organize your Research Sources in RefWorks – Part 2

In part two of Gather and Organize your research, we'll teach you how to do or use the following tools:

1. Online catalog search via RefWorks
2. Manual entry
3. RSS feeds
4. Managing Folders
5. Viewing Exact and Close Duplicates, by database or folder
6. Advanced Search

Attendees should first attend one of the following webinars first (or have a basic understanding of RefWorks)

1) RefWorks in 15 Minutes
2) RefWorks Fundamentals
3) Using RefWorks to Quickly Import Citations and Write a Paper

Tuesday, May 14, 2013

2:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
11:00 am Pacific Daylight Time (San Francisco, GMT-07:00)

https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?t=a&d=712875649

The New Write-N-Cite for Windows

This webinar will demonstrate the newly designed Write-N-Cite on the Windows platform, which fully integrates with MicroSoft Word while leveraging the strength of a web-based Cloud service. The new Write-N-Cite will run on Word for Windows 2007 & 2010. You'll get the same features on either platform, and sharing documents between Mac and Windows computers is as easy as opening a file.

Key improvements of the new Write-N-Cite:
• Auto formatting while you write
• Seamless online/offline access to your references
• Professional citation and bibliography customization tools
• Auto managed footnote styles

Wednesday, May 8, 2013

2:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
11:00 am Pacific Daylight Time (San Francisco, GMT-07:00)

https://refworks.webex.com/refworks/onstage/g.php?t=a&d=715041522

Wednesday, May 15, 2013

1:00 pm Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
10:00 am Pacific Daylight Time (San Francisco, GMT-07:00)
The New Write-N-Cite for the Mac

This webinar will give demonstrate the newly designed Write-N-Cite on the Mac platform. Write-N-Cite fully integrates with MS Word while leveraging the strength of a web-based Cloud service. The new Write-N-Cite will run on Word 2008 & 2011 on the Mac; an operating system of 10.5+ is required. Documents created using the new Write-N-Cite on the Mac maybe also be opened and used on Windows PC computers.

Wednesday, May 8, 2013
11:00 am Eastern Daylight Time (New York, GMT-04:00)
4:00 pm GMT Summer Time (London, GMT+01:00)

Webinars in German:

Referenzen sammeln und organisieren mit RefWorks – Teil 1 (30 Minuten)
Diese Trainingeinheit wird die folgenden Funktionen und Werkzeuge vorstellen:

Direkter Export aus einer Datenbank
OpenURL
Datei-Anhänge
Letzer Import Ordner; Einen Ordner erstellen und Referenzen einfügen
Referenzen aus einem Bibliothekskatalog exportieren
RefGrab-it
Schnellsuche

Dienstag, 21. Mai 2013
10:00 Uhr Central European Summer Time MESZ

Referenzen sammeln und organisieren mit RefWorks – Teil 2 (30 Minuten)
Im Zweiten Teil von Sammeln und Organisieren von Referenzen werden folgende Werkzeuge vorgestellt:

OPAC Suche via RefWorks
Manuelles Hinzufügen von Referenzen
RSS Feeds
Arbeiten mit Ordern
Duplikate finden
Erweiterte Suche

Donnerstag, 23. Mai 2013
13:00 Uhr Central European Time MEZ
https://refworks.webex.com/ec0605id/eventcenter/enroll/join.do?confViewID=1181786384&theAction=detail&confId=1181786384&path=program_detail&siteurl=refworks

Sincerely,

RefWorks Client Services and Training